for the opening of a separate Sub-Head will be issued by the Ministry of Finance separately.

6 As already laid down in the above mentioned O.Ms dated 11-8-76 and 13-11-86 Ministries/Departments etc. are advised to organise their work in all offices in such a way as to complete it during the normal working hours. The standards of supervision should be tightened to achieve this objective. If inspite of all measures taken to re-organise the work and tightening of supervision there are cases of work on holidays and excessive duty hours the Government employees should normally be allowed compensatory off days. However in exception at circumstances where compensatory off cannot be given and it is inescapable to employ staff on overtime work after satisfying himself that the work is of such an urgent nature that it cannot be postponed in the public interest till the next working day, the competent authority shall, as far as possible specily before-hand the time upto which a Government servant may be required to perform overtime work.

7 These orders shall take effect from 1st December 1990.

8 In their application to employees serving under Indian Audit and Accounts Department thse orders issue in consultation with C & AG.
